this book is about champions in women s athletics at baylor university the champions who provided the advocacy and leadership for the women s athletic program and the champions who have brought baylor s women s athletic program to the national prominence it enjoys in 2012 jacket

the commercial model of college sports entangles presidents boards and their institutions in a complex web of dysfunctional commitments the unrivaled amount of cash poured into the college athletic system has made sports programs breeding grounds for corruption while diverting crucial resources from the academic mission of universities like money in washington politics the influence bought by a complex set of self interested actors seriously undermines movement toward reform while trapping universities in a cycle of escalating competition longtime sport sociologist howard I nixon ii approaches the issue from the perspective of college presidents how they are seduced by prestige or pressured by economics into building programs that move schools toward a commercial model of athletics nixon situates his analysis in the context of what he calls the intercollegiate golden triangle a powerful social network of athletic media and private corporate commercial interests this network lures presidents and other university leaders into an athletic arms race with promises of institutional enhancements increased enrollments better student morale improved alumni loyalty more financial contributions and higher prestige these promises can cloud the judgment of college presidents and governing boards entangling them in an athletic trap that restricts their influence unable to control spending inequalities and deviance within commercialized athletic programs universities are ensnared in financial political and social obligations that are difficult to sustain or escape nixon clarifies the structure of this trap describes how higher education institutions fall into it and explores what it means for institutions and presidents caught in it this timely analysis also has relevance to the debates about the role of the ncaa and ongoing reform efforts in college sports the athletic trap will be of interest to university presidents board members and administrators sport sociologists concerned with the balance of power between academics and athletics and anyone else with a serious interest in college sports and its future
